DIANA PICCINI

Bids for Crown

Diana Piccini, a soft-spoken, blue-eyed miss who resides at 210 Willits street, has placed her bid for the Miss Daly City crown. A resident of Daly City for 12 years, Diana, who stands an even five feet tall and weighs 110 pounds, is adept at both sewing and twirling, an odd combination which she manages quite well.

Diana is a prize-winning seamstress. At the same time, she is a majorette at Jefferson High School. Last year, she entered and won a first prize in the teenage division of the Singer Sewing Center contest in Westlake.

Diana, who plans to eventually become a homemaker, is already planning to supervise freshmen sewing next year at Jefferson High School, cut a nice figure herself. Her measurements are 35 1/2-24-35 1/2.

Construction To Begin on Post Office

Construction is expected to begin June 1 on Daly City's newest and biggest post office building, according to regional director R. R. Germain.

"If everything goes along like we expect it to be, we can start the groundbreaking on June 1."

Germain said the building, a 25,000 square foot structure, will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year.

A contract has been awarded to Robert and Jane Erving, 777 First street, San Jose, to build and lease the building to the post office department.

The present owner will construct the new building on the west side of Sullivan avenue, from 88th to 89th street.

The new postoffice in Daly City will be constructed on a site containing 67,500 square feet, and is expected to be completed in approximately eight months after the plans are approved. It will have an interior space of 23,670 square feet, with an area of 39,160 square feet for parking and movement of postal vehicles.

Some postal space will be realized in the present building for the benefit of patrons in that area.

Month Delay Seen on 90th Street Project

Brugato Paving Company is paying $50 per day in liquidated damages as the result of delays in construction on the 90th street assessment project.

Coast Erosion Study Started For Daly City

The United States Senate public works committee, in a response to a request by Senator Thomas H. Kuchel, has adopted a resolution directing army engineers to make a study of beach erosion problem in Daly City and the need of prevention and control work in this community.

Mayor Joseph Verducci solicited assistance last month because of landslide dangers.

A survey of the coastal area to determine causes and extent of erosion has been called.

The request followed slides and danger of slides in the Thornton Beach area. Part of old Coast Highway dropped into the sea and a section of the Thornton Beach road fell.

ALISON TRIGG

Miss Daly City Contestant

Alison Trigg, 16, a contestant for Miss Daly City title, has aspirations of soon becoming a beauty operator. The blonde, blue-eyed miss, who measures 36-24-37, resides at 201 South Mayfair. Swimming and dancing are her favorite pastimes.

Alison ("some people call me Al") was born in St. Helena, Calif., and has resided in Daly City for 12 years.

Miss Trigg will attend the Hilltop Beauty School in three months. This is a nine-months course. After that, she will be required to pass state examinations to obtain a license.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berardy.

'Miss Daly City' Preliminaries to Be Held May 24

Chairman Fred Martin has set May 24th for the preliminaries of the "Miss Daly City" contest—time, 6:30 p.m., at the Coronado Apartment swimming pool, Westlake. Thus far, seven entries have been received, which indicates that by closing date there should be at least 15 contestants.

The finals will take place on May 5 at the South San Francisco Elk's Club on Hillside boulevard, about one mile south of Cypress Hills Golf Club. With the closing of the Steak Pit, this was the only place available that could handle a dinner crowd of over 100.

Those wishing to attend may contact the Chamber Office. (Continued on Page 2)

Legal Battle On Broadmoor, Westlake Road

The controversial White street extension proposal to link Broadmoor with Westlake will be contested in Superior Court of San Mateo County on June 13 by the Jefferson Elementary School District and San Mateo County.

The project is opposed by school authorities who do not want the road to pass between the Garden Village and Benjamin Franklin schools.

The school district last year filed a condemnation suit against the San Mateo County-owned strip of land that runs between the two schools.

The school district, June 13, will contend that the schools have higher use of the land than the county.

District Superintendent Richard Foster said the move by the county is felt to be hazardous to children and would prevent construction of more classrooms at Garden Village School.

"For these reasons, we are opposed," he said.

If the school district is successful in its litigation, it will file a second suit to determine the value of the land in order to purchase it from the county, Foster said.

School Board Hears Unification Report

The "educational advantages and disadvantages of the unification proposals for the Jefferson Union High School District area and adjacent areas" were thoroughly examined in an 11-page report submitted by Superintendent Edward Morgan at the high school board meeting Monday night.

Morgan stressed that the report was requested by the Jefferson Union board and was not given to express any particular view.

All elementary district resolutions, according to the report, seemed to express several common characteristics. All elementary school boards examined the assessed valuation in relation to the average daily attendance. All were concerned with the coordination of the district, and all but the Bayshore district had submitted several alternate recommendations for unification, including South San Francisco, Millbrae and San Bruno.

Only the Jefferson elementary board was quoted as being "unqualifiedly in favor" of unification.

Groundbreaking for New Hospital on Saturday

The colorful groundbreaking ceremony for the eight-million dollar Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City will be held May 11 at 1:15 p.m. at the 11-acre hilltop site located southwest of Junipero Serra boulevard at Eastmoor and San Fernando way in Daly City. The public is invited.

Speakers will include Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Archbishop Joseph McGucken and Judge George B. Harris, presiding. Welcome will be given by Mayor Joseph Verducci.

The groundbreaking ceremonies for the hospital culminate two years of careful preparation, study and planning by the Daughters of Charity of Mary's Help Hospital (which has been a Mission district landmark for more than half a century).

Although the new Mary's Help Hospital will be only a 20-minute drive from its present location at 145 Guerrero street, its service area will include approximately a quarter of a million people, presently without adequate medical and nursing facilities.

A survey showed that the communities of Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco, Pacifica and contiguous county area now under rapid residential and business development represented the No. 1 priority area in California in urgent need of hospital facilities.

Planned originally for 250 beds, the new hospital will be so constructed as to provide three additional floors for a total of 400 beds. At its present rate of growth, the service area for the new Mary's Help Hospital is expected to double (Continued on Page 2)

Annex Protest Fall Short

The annexation of 375 acres of Bayshore City lands to Daly City was virtually assured at a second hearing last Thursday, when no additional protests were received against the annexation.

In fact, two protestants, J & P Enterprises and Bluestone Corp., withdrew.

Daly City council passed a resolution that less

Award Night for Students May 14

The Daly City Chamber of Commerce student award night will be held May 14 at 7 p.m. in at Cascade Room at Joe's of Westlake.

Eight youths have been selected, four each from Jefferson and Westmoor.

These students have excelled in various subjects, with an ability to maintain an "A" average, as well as having played an important part in the many extra-curricular functions connected with high school life.

Each year at the function, the Chamber of Commerce points out that the three per cent of the juvenile delinquents are the ones who dominate the headlines, and youngsters like these are seldom mentioned or publicized because their ways and deeds are patterned after the society in which we live.

than a 50 per cent protest of landowners was received and set a date for a special election in Bayshore City for July 2.

At this time some 512 registered voters from Bayshore City will make known their views on annexation. The vote is expected to be favorable toward annexation. Daly City residents do not vote on the matter.

Protests as of May 2 amounted to $435,500, or 37.79 per cent of the assessed valuation of the property to be annexed.

The protest included Cow Palace $190,000; Crown Cork and Seal $213,950; Schlage Lock, $6,325; Equitable Life $78,200 and LaVerne Colorado $825. Total assessed valuation of the annexation is $1,292,500.

The original protest was 43 per cent of the total valuation. Should the July 2 vote be approved, only the Crocker Land company would remain in the unincorporated state. Brisbane recently swept into its limits 10,000 acres of prime industrial land.

BANK OPENING—A big and hearty welcome was provided at the opening last Friday of the First National Bank of Daly City at 150 San Pedro road. Hundreds of guests

Chamber of Commerce president; Nicos Lagomarsino, bank director; and John Varni, bank president.

Big Send-Off For New Bank

A host of well-wishers turned out Friday for the opening of Daly City's first "home-owned" bank, the First National Bank of Daly City at 150 San Pedro road.

Dozens of dignitaries wished John Varni, president, and the board of directors, well on their venture, which culminated a year of planning.

Although operated by the largest religious order in the world, the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, specialists in hospital administration for more than three centuries, the new Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City, like its current facility in the Mission district of San Francisco, will be general voluntary community hospital, designed to care for the needs of all residents regardless of race, religion or economic status.

Like the founder, St. Vincent, the religious order is known throughout the world for its charity.

Unification

Under the heading of disadvantages, the report pointed to the loss of "local control," the increased difficulty of communication within a growing district, and the suggestion that areas that have "their schools" might not support further building programs.

The report closed its review of unification problems with the suggestion that all boards attempt to give their areas the best possible educational programs. If this suggestion is generally valid, the difference in programs lies in the financial capabilities of any particular district.

The report closed with the statement that if the Jefferson Union High School district is divided it will mean a splitting of its financial backing.

The matter was tabled at the report's conclusion.

Pointing to the solvent San Mateo district and the fact that a split has been indicated, Superintendent Morgan stated in an interview that such a split will inevitably damage some areas of the district. The Jefferson board, Morgan concluded, presently is not ready to allow this to occur in the Jefferson district.

Jeff Demolition

In the opening minutes of the meeting, bids were heard for the demolition of the old Jefferson High School building. Six bids were submitted, ranging from a low of $27,451 by the Mayco Salvage Company of South San Francisco to a high bid of $48,120. The bids were taken under consideration by the board, Superintendent Morgan stating that the bids were good ones, as the original estimates placed the costs at $45,000.

Cow Palace Protest Remains

Clayton Roche, deputy attorney general representing the Cow Palace, repeated his plea last Thursday to keep the Cow Palace out of the proposed Bayshore City annexation to Daly City.

His comments afterward were met with questions and comment by Mayor Joseph Verducci and councilmen.

Roche said that first of all he wanted to make it clear that the Cow Palace is not trying to keep the citizens of Bayshore City out of Daly City.

All they are requesting, he said, is that the city council start over again and go around the Cow Palace in its annexation boundaries.

"Secondly," Roche continued, "we wish to renew the argument that we believe that the annexation as presently set up is an invalid attempt to include large parcels of uninhabited land in an inhabited annexation. Roche said it is "our" conclusion that the annexation proceedings were improperly initiated, contained defects and were faulty from their conception.

City Attorney Paul Hupf later replied that "I do not agree" with Mr. Roche's observations that the proceedings were improperly initiated. Hupf said he is prepared to meet with Mr. Roche on any issue he may raise on any defect to this proceeding.

In Roche's argument, he brought out the statement that bills were being brought out in the state legislature that, if passed, would defeat the present annexation. One of the bills (SB 1606), Roche said, would amend the provisions of the inhabited and uninhabited act to the effect that property belonging to agricultural associations may not be annexed without consent of its board of directors.

"We had better send a telegram to the legislature that we are against SB 1606," replied Councilman Frank Pacelli.

Pacelli continued: "A board, or group of men, in an agricultural district, is basically concerned with promoting various events in the Cow Palace whether it is in San Francisco, Daly City or Cucu Monga; it shouldn't be too concerned about where they are situated. How this board would want us to detract around the Cow Palace, leaving a little spot there, entirely their own little backwater, is beyond me—planning in the worst order."

Councilman Dennis asked Roche: "Are there any directors of the Cow Palace here tonight?"

Roche: "No."

Dennis: "Have you checked with Attorney General Mosk?"

Roche: "No, I haven't talked to the attorney general . . . the Cow Palace is a state agency. The attorney general's office is required by law to represent every state agency other than those who have their own counsel. This is an office assignment for me, that is all. We are legally required to do so."

DeBernardi to Roche: "You have quoted some legal things tonight — are there any legal points that the city council could impose upon the Cow Palace that they are not already in a position of having performed on them?"

Roche: "To my knowledge, no."

Mayor Verducci: "The degree to which this council went to cooperate with the (Cow Palace) board should be known: Some members of the board indicated to the council that there might be some possibility of the board withdrawing its protests if the council would do certain things. One was a letter from the mayor indicating cooperation by the council in relieving whatever it was that was bothering them. The mayor sent such a letter. They received a letter from the chief of police indicating they would receive equal services or better than they now receive. Such a letter was sent by the chief of police. That our fire service would be as good should they be annexed. Such a letter was sent by our fire chief.

"Lastly, they wanted some idea from us whether or not we would be in a position to place tax on admissions. We sent a wire to Assemblyman Ryan of the 27th District, indicating this principle.

"What greater degree could the council take to indicate our willingness to cooperate?"

Ninety per cent of the stock in the bank is owned by local stockholders. The business, according to President Varni, will be the "only independent bank in San Mateo County."

Some 400 shares outstanding are held by local residents. The new bank, which signifies a $350,000 investment, will include such features as drive-in deposits and feature parking for 25 cars.

But we do not believe that sufficient information has been disseminated to the people on rapid transit, monorail and certainly not on what the eventual $115,000,000 in this proposed road bond issue is to be spent for."

The bank will have 6,000 square feet of floor space, including a mezzanine for employees.

Directors of the bank include Harry C. Curusa, Rocco Lagomarsino, Elton A. McGraw, Gerald Mincher, Lawrence Vanucci and John F. Varni.

County Tax Rate To Be Reduced

San Mateo County's tax rate for 1963-64 will show a reduction for the fifth year in a row. County Manager E. R. Stallings predicted May 6 in his preliminary budget presented to the board of supervisors for study.

Barring unforeseen changes, the rate will drop from $1.6111 to $1.60.

The spending program for the next fiscal year totals a record $40,408,722. Actually, the budget figure is $39,409,612. The difference is the 39 and 40 million dollar figures is brought about by an order of the state controller to move the medical care expenditures ($999,110), which has been carried in a trust account, into the regular budget.

The entire amount is offset by state and federal grants, but appears to make the budget higher this year.

The proposed budget shows an increase of $1,175,066 over last year, one of the smallest boosts in many years. On a percentage basis the increase comes to 3.07 per cent. In gram went up $3,059,678 or 8.7 per cent over the previous year.

The following major increases are listed in the manager's recommendations:

Salary increases authorized for Jan. 1, 1963, $585,000.

Retirement, Social Security contributions, $185,000.

Mental health requirements reflecting a recalculation of the in-patient day costs at General Hospital, $239,284.

Automation—One-time capital cost distributed among assessor, tax collector and treasurer's office, $75,000.

Colma Creek drainage — Construction of silt basins at county expense, $80,000.

Health Department — Primarily for transfer of state therapists to El Portal School to the health department, and increased cost of crippled children services, $98,784.

Medical Care — Previously carried in trust account, now transferred to budget by directive of the state controller, $990,110.

Partially offsetting the increases are these decreases:

Capital Projects—Budgeted in amount of sales tax revenues, $227,000.

Welfare Aids—First reduction in decades, $307,746.

Prison for Daly City Slayer

Robert J. O'Brien, 30-year-old former employee of the state division of highways, was sentenced last week to serve one to ten years in state prison for involuntary manslaughter.

Supreme Court Judge Frank B. Blum recommended that O'Brien, who was convicted of killing his estranged wife, be kept at the prison hospital facility at Vacaville for psychiatric treatment.

O'Brien had served a 90-day period of observation at Vacaville. Doctors there said they felt he would benefit by further treatment.

The defendant was convicted last November in the slaying of his wife, Kathleen, outside her Daly City home. O'Brien told authorities he was shifting a target pistol from one place to another in his car when it discharged accidentally.

OK Pacifica High-Rise Apartments

Construction of a $10,000,000 apartment house project, consisting of 170 high rise buildings on more than 446 acres facing Cabrillo highway in the Edgemar area, was given a green light by Pacifica planning commissioners despite a strong protest from nearby residents.

Edward H. Maykel, representing the Oddstad company, said it is hoped to begin construction in June, 1964, and complete the project by May, 1965. He said a total of 1,250 apartment units is planned.

Residents of Edgemar avenue and Manor Village presented the commission with a protest petition signed by 67 homeowners. In addition, a delegation of some 60 nearby residents appeared at the meeting.

Spokesman for the Oddstad company assured residents that no access to apartments would be provided on Edgemar avenue, and that all entrances and exits to buildings would face a new frontage road off the Cabrillo freeway.

The company's plans must now go to city councilmen for final approval. The new project, which will be constructed on a steep terrain to give an ocean view, will adjoin the Church of the Good Shepherd and houses in the 600 and 700 blocks of Edgemar avenue.

Pool Hall Thief Instrumental in Arrest of Prostitute

A New York thief and narcotics user, arrested on a charge of burglarizing the Daly City Billiard Parlor, 6380 Mission last week pointed the way to the arrest of an alleged high-priced prostitute.

Arresting officer was Dennis Sheehy.

He reported that Jose Centeno, 33, professional pool player, admitted the breaking and entering March 26 and theft of some $15 from the pool hall. Answering a tip from Centeno, Sheehy, April 23, arrested Diana F. Schetter, 22, of 230 Dolores street, San Francisco, on prostitution charges.

Sheehy reported he met the woman in a local bar, agreed upon a $60 price and obtained a room in a local motel, where the arrest was made.

Jefferson Elementary Votes 'No'

The Jefferson Elementary School District formally voted "no" Monday on the San Mateo County school unification committee proposal to unify five school districts.

The trustees accepted a six-page statement of reasons drafted by Dr. Donald Calvert for voting against the plan. This would combine the elementary school district of Jefferson, Brisbane, Bayshore and Laguna Salada and the Jefferson High School District.

The county committee's plan will be voted on by the board and committee next Wednesday.

Seat Belt Month Proclamation

Mayor Joseph Verducci of Daly City has proclaimed the month of May as "Seat Belt Month" in Daly City, and urges all residents of Daly City to see that seat belts are installed in automobiles owned by them for all occupants of the vehicle.

The mayor cited statistics that fatal accidents would be reduced by at least ten percent if all occupants of vehicles involved in collisions were strapped in seats.

UNDERCROSSING — Drawing of proposed $287,000 undercrossing for Gateway Drive at intersection with four-lane Edgemar Expressway near the Daly City southern limits.

Gateway Drive serves the existing residential area west of the expressway and a new development of 1,500 homes is under construction on the easterly side.

Teen City Plans Open House

An open house at Teen City is planned for tomorrow night for all interested residents of the Daly City area, owners announced yesterday.

All questions of interest to parents will be answered at the new night club, designed solely for the teen-agers.

The club is at 15 San Pedro avenue, just off Mission street in Colma.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies will be served at the informal pre-opening. Management stressed that all are welcome. The doors will be open from 7 to 10 p. m.

Drowning at Lake Merced

South San Francisco High school student Al Fenton Buffington Jr. of 150 Francisco drive drowned Sunday afternoon while swimming with a companion at San Francisco's Lake Merced.

San Francisco police reported that Buffington, 15, and Tom Morgan, 14, of 142 Ramona street, South San Francisco, were swimming near the northern end of the lake after renting a boat about 2 p. m.

Morgan told officers he and his friend had thrown the oars out of the boat and then swam after them. He reported the boat drifted away, however, and as he and Buffington started to swim back he heard his friend yell that he had a cramp. When he looked around, Morgan said his companion had disappeared under the surface.

Skindivers searched for more than two hours before locating the boy's body. A crowd of hundreds gathered to watch.

SSF Housewife Manslaughter Charge Dropped

Mrs. Joyce Calabretta, the 25-year-old South San Francisco housewife who was accused of manslaughter in the violent deaths of two of her children, was freed of blame by the county grand jury early this week.

After hearing six hours of testimony from 13 witnesses, the jury found that there was insufficient evidence to indict her.

A coroner's jury at an inquest last month recommended that Mrs. Calabretta be charged with voluntary manslaughter after hearing evidence that the infants had died of head injuries. A neighbor testified that she saw Mrs. Calabretta administer a severe beating to a third son, but there was no such evidence concerning the dead boys. Mrs. Calabretta did not testify either at the inquest or before the grand jury.

Robert Higgins, the jury foreman, said three possible charges were submitted to the jury — murder, manslaughter and child beating. The jury voted unanimously, he said, to reject all three charges.

Beaten, Robbed For Six Cents

James Klein, 15, 208 Mansfield drive in South San Francisco, reported to Daly City police late Saturday that three youths had beaten him up and robbed him of six cents.

Klein said the incident occurred as he was walking toward a bus stop near Westlake avenue and Mission street. He was treated at Kaiser Foundation Hospital for bruises and released.

Gateway Drive

Undercrossing Work To Begin

Bids will be opened in Sacramento on May 15 for a $287,000 project to construct an undercrossing for Gateway Drive at the existing grade intersection with the four-lane Edgemar Expressway near the southern limits of Daly City.

Gateway Drive serves the existing residential area west of the expressway and a new development of approximately 1,500 homes is under construction on the easterly side. Immediate improvement of this intersection is required due to the increasing number of vehicles with traffic hazards created by turning movements aggravated by the heavy fog condition along the coast.

The proposed undercrossing will be an interim measure for the safety and convenience of residents of this area, and also the initial step in the planned reconstruction of the adjacent interchange of the Edgemar Expressway and Skyline boulevard.

Construction of the undercrossing and grading through the state right of way will be accomplished under the state's proposed contract, while the developer of the new community easterly of the expressway will assume the responsibility for curbs, gutters, sidewalk and street paving on Gateway Drive.

Teen Dance Club Hearing Is May 14

Teen-age dance clubs will be subject of a special hearing to be held by the San Mateo County board of supervisors May 14 at 2:45 p. m. at the board's regular place of meeting in the Hall of Justice and Records in Redwood City.

Many teen-age dance night clubs are springing up throughout the county, and the board will discuss the question of whether such clubs should be permitted and if so, under what regulations, if any, should be adopted.

All interested persons are invited to attend and give their views.

Supervisor James Fitzgerald said he has received many protests against a teen-age club in Columbo Hall on San Pedro avenue, near Daly City.

A permit for the club in Columbo Hall has been granted by the county licensing board to David Reach of Pacifica. It was granted under the general county ordinance regulating dancing halls.

Fitzgerald was advised by District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson that the county could not attempt to prohibit teen-age night clubs but could adopt special regulations to control them.

The supervisor said he wants to find out whether the county has adequate laws at the present time to keep law and order.

Miss Wagga Wagga Visits In Daly City

Miss Wagga Wagga visited Daly City last week, was "thrilled" by what she saw, and is now en route to Leavenworth, Kan., Washington, D.C., and New York City to complete her official visit on behalf of her home city.

A pretty, poised and personable 19-year-old, Jeanette McGarry was selected to represent Wagga Wagga, New South Wales, Australia, at the official celebration in Leavenworth of that city's "sister city" relationship with the Australian city. Sponsored by the Wagga Wagga Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club, Miss McGarry's itinerary will take her to several cities in the United States, where she will address civic groups and meet officials.

While in Daly City, Miss McGarry stayed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Vinton Stratton. She also made new friends at a reception in her honor given by Mr. and Mrs. Les Ritchie at their home in Hillsborough.

The friendliness of the Rotarians, who listened intently at their last meeting as she extended greetings from her city, impressed her very much. Particularly of interest to her was the fact that three local Rotarians, Dr. George Riba, Louis Lent, and Leo Ritchie had come to this area from countries in the British Commonwealth — Australia and Canada.

OLPH Parents to Hear Sister Gabriel

On Thursday evening, May 9, at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium, Sister John Gabriel of St. Elizabeth's Infant Shelter will speak to the mothers and fathers of the students of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School. The topic of her address will concern teen-age problems of today. All parents are cordially invited to be present at this time.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mother's Club will be held following the discussion. The agenda will include the announcement by President Mrs. Rita Perkov, of the new officers to be installed at the June meeting. Mrs. Joan Martin, chairman, will give her report on the "Ham Whist" to be held on the afternoon of May 18 in the school auditorium. Detailed plans for the coming fall fashion show will be given by Mrs. Gloria Homberg, chairman for the forth-coming event.

Hostesses for this evening's meeting will be the mothers of the Third Grade Students.

Art Display At Public Library

Eleven sketches in ink by Walter Bachmann, local artist, are on display in the Daly City Public Library, Westlake Branch, 275 Southgate.

According to City Librarian, Samuel Chandler, Mr. Bachmann's work can be seen during the month of May—week days from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The show consists of eleven drawings. Among them are sketches of Mission Dolores, Telegraph Hill, Golden Gate Bridge, "The Ram" in Sun Valley, Idaho, Lobitos Creek in San Mateo County and the Japanese Tea Garden. "Already," said Chandler, "the sketches have attracted the attention of library patrons."

The artist, Walter Bachmann, was born in Santiago, Chile. He studied art with notable teachers in South America. After coming to the United States, he went to live in Sun Valley, Idaho where he painted some of the largest mountains in the world. He came to California in 1958. Presently he lives at 1635 Sweetwood Drive in Broadmoor.

His art works have been shown in his native Santiago; in Caracas, Venezuela, and in Sun Valley, Idaho.

MENTAL HEALTH—Shown with a Mental Health Poster is Ernest Norback, president of the San Mateo County Mental Health Association, and Mayor Joseph J. Verdood, at the annual community mental health luncheon last week in San Mateo. The luncheon, attended by community leaders throughout the county, was in tribute to Mental Health Month, designated in May by the National Association for Mental Health.

Annual Music Assembly at Daniel Webster

Daniel Webster School held its annual Instrumental Music Assembly on April 29 in the multi-use room. The entire school was invited to attend. The school orchestra, directed by Richard Snyder, played one of John Philip Sousa's marches, "Rifle Regiment," and a Johann Strauss waltz entitled "Southern Roses."

Mrs. Jane Cain's third grade class played two selections on the Tonettes which they have been using as a classroom project for the past two months. Pupils from Miss Nancy Palmer's special class who participated were Linda Phillips and John Barnes, playing "Where Has My Little Dog Gone" and "Home on the Range," respectively. Miss Palmer's own chord organ is being used by her class.

Judy Katuna from Miss Wright's fifth grade played several numbers on the marimba.

Mr. Snyder's pupils closed the 45-minute program with two numbers, "I've Been Workin' on the Railroad" and "Calsons Go Rolling Along."

Members of the 14-piece beginning orchestra and the instruments each played follows: Michelle Warren, Valerie Garland and Jacqueline Carbone, violins; Dyan Duling, Jayce Fickert, Jeanine Hirschhorn and Jeffrey Bentz, clarinets; Kenneth Walker and John Reuter, saxophones; Mark Paganelli, trumpet, and Paul Grech, Don Ragland, Ed Spiteri and Steven Sarhad, drums.

A spring concert for parents and their friends was held Tuesday evening, May 7. Both the orchestra and glee club presented a varied program before an appreciative audience.

H. Z. Welbel, principal of Daniel Webster, at the regular building meeting last Wednesday continued to plan with the teachers more activities to bring parents and children together in the school's spacious multi-use room.

During the past two years, a "leisure-time activities fair" and a "school-wide art show" were held as extra-curricular projects for the entire school to work on during the year.

The theme for the school year 1963-64 will be "Science Activities, Both Natural and Physical, for kindergarten and grades through the sixth."

The final Explorer's Club film of the season will be presented Sunday afternoon, May 12, at 2 and 3 p.m. in Morrison Auditorium, California Academy of Sciences, in Golden Gate Park.

Drive-In Theater Flood Danger Cited

Impending construction of a 1300-car drive-in theater in Colma, just north of city limits, will create a serious flood danger in South San Francisco, city councilmen were informed Monday night.

Antonio Montoya, a civil engineer and representative of Sunshine Gardens residents, warned that the drive-in movie scheduled to be developed 200 yards away from Holly avenue in South San Francisco, will increase drainage flow-off so drastically that homes adjacent to Colma Creek probably will be inundated in the first heavy rain.

Montoya said he was successful in delaying plans for the new drive-in when he appeared before the Colma planning commission recently, but asked for South San Francisco support when the commission meets again May 16.

Louis H. Goss, South San Francisco public works director, backed Montoya's statements and said when he checked figures of engineers for the drive-in with City Engineer Edwin Smith of Colma he found that Colma Creek drainage will be increased ten per cent instead of the one per cent claimed. He said drive-engineers had apparently "misplaced a decimal."

Montoya claimed that the 13-acre drive-in theater would be hard-surfaced, vastly increasing the drainage flow. He said the company had based its plans only to satisfy Colma, and did not take nearby homes in South San Francisco into consideration.

Councilmen instructed municipal department heads to do all possible to halt construction of the drive-in theater by presenting facts to Colma city officials.

An average oil or gas well reaches about 4,000 feet into the earth and costs more than $62,000 to drill.

CIRCUS DAYS IN WEST PORTAL

MAY 10, 11, 12

OWNER and president of the association of the West Portal San Francisco Horseman's As- May 11.

"Come To The Circus — in West Portal"

The friendly, hospitable merchants of the West Portal Avenue Association are bringing a gala circus atmosphere to West Portal avenue for their annual Spring Festival, to be held this year from Friday, May 10, through Sunday, May 12.

All sorts of colorful and exciting events are planned for the enjoyment and entertainment of West Portal visitors throughout these three days.

From Friday noon until 2:30 p. m., everyone is cordially invited to step in at the Hospitality Buffet, to be located in front of the Chuck Wagon in the charming and attractive court located between Gray's Fashion Garden at 209 West Portal and the O'Dee Ann Shop at 225 West Portal avenue.

Coffee and pastries will be served, and guests will be invited to observe floral arrangements by the St. Francis Garden Club and original oil paintings by West Portal artists.

Saturday's events are planned for children exclusively — for their own enjoyment and participation. A huge parade will start at 11 a. m. in the West Portal playground and will continue down through the three blocks to West Portal avenue, returning via the same route.

A San Francisco police motorcycle escort will lead the parade of children who will be dressed in circus costumes and, in many cases, will be accompanied by their individual pets.

The San Francisco Boys Club band in their sparkling blue and white uniforms, various groups of Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts from Troop 143, marching accordianists from the Farace Studio, dancers and acrobats from Powell Reilly and O'Neill Sisters Studios, plus several members of the San Francisco Horsemen's Association Juniors on their beautiful parade show horses.

The San Francisco Sheriff's Mounted Possee will be preceded by their official mascot, William Ernest — the Alpine goat, who will be led by Mrs. Adolph Smith, wife of the president of this group. The Sheriff's Possee, in their colorful and outstanding uniforms, will have a color guard and complement riding in the parade.

"Beauty," the beautiful white horse of Jim Arness of TV fame, will also be making an appearance, ridden by Walter Crim, president of the San Francisco Horsemen's Association.

Following the parade, a demonstration of various skills will be put on by Boy Scouts in the Chuck Wagon court, and further entertainment will be provided by the Farace accordianists and the Powell Reilly dance group.

Sunday will be the BIG DAY in West Portal — the frog jump, at which the winner will be determined who will go as West Portal's official representative to the International Frog Jump at Angel's Camp in Calaveras County on the following Saturday and Sunday.

Entertainment will be interspersed with the frog jumping, with folk dancing, old-time fiddle playing, dancing and accordion numbers. Dog acts will add to the circus atmosphere.

It is also hoped that the famous 40 & 8 train, enjoyed so much by the children last year, will be on hand to provide rides up and down West Portal avenue.

Most famous guest will be the well-known radio personality, Al Collins, who will again serve as official jump master of the frog event in his inimitable and colorful manner.

Many visitors from Angel's Camp are expected to add an authentic touch in their unique costumes from the gold rush days in Old California.

SSF Is the City For Triplets

South San Francisco seems to be a great city for triplets. Last Wednesday, Mrs. Marie Cantalupo, 30, 401 Dolores way, gave birth to Anthony, five pounds, eight ounces, at 11:22 a. m.; John, five pounds, six ounces, at 11:25 a. m., and Marcella, seven pounds, two and one-half ounces, four minutes later.

The children were born at Kaiser Foundation Hospital, where, on Jan. 1, 1962, Mrs. Guenther Bauer, also of South San Francisco, gave birth to the last set of triplets born locally.

The father is Jerry Cantalupo, who owns a San Francisco barber shop. The Cantalupos now have five children.

Tin Theft in Bayshore City

Theft of $600 worth of pure tin was reported to the sheriff's office last week by the Crown Cork & Seal Company of Bayshore City.

James E. Burns, manager of industrial relations, told deputies that the tin was in foot-long bars in five cardboard containers.

SSF Girl Injured in Porch Fall

Six-year-old Cheryl Lynn neighbor's home while playing with a group of children, South San Francisco police reported.

After emergency treatment at Kaiser Foundation Hospital, she was taken home.

SCOUTS (left to right) Steve Wilkerson, Kevin Lynch, John Johnston and Paul Conroy set the telescope to watch the crowds coming to West Portal Circus Days, May 10, 11 and 12. Directors Rahm Kermani and Sam Masonic wait patiently, smiling.

Pacifica Student Editor of the 'Golden Gater'

A 20-year old senior student born at Cairo, Mahmoud Abouzeid, Jr. of Pacifica, was chosen editor of the San Francisco State College newspaper, The Golden Gater, by the College Board of Publications this week.

Abouzeid is the managing editor and will replace Terry Link of San Francisco in the executive post. The paper was recently named among the top 20 college papers in the nation by the Associate Collegiate Press.

Abouzeid won over three other student applicants. Voting lasted into late hours before a decision was reached by the Board.

He has served as reporter and editor of the Summer Session edition. Abouzeid has also been a part-time reporter on the Pacifica Tribune.

Abouzeid's parents now live in Cairo. His mother is American and father Egyptian. He attended both the College of Marin and U.C. in Berkeley. His plans are to secure a Master's Degree in language arts at San Francisco State.

Abouzeid is married and has an 11-months old son.

Only 13% Return For Easter Seals

San Mateo County's Easter Seal Campaign today reached a total of $37,274.41 against the quota of $50,000 needed to pay operating expenses for the Rehabilitation and Research Center in Burlingame this year, operated by the Society for Crippled Children and Adults of San Mateo County.

Jimmy Davenport, Giants third baseman and Bob St. Clair, 49er tackle, both residents of San Mateo County and co-chairmen of this year's drive today urged county residents to send in $2 each to make up the deficit.

"We mailed out 133,000 sets of Easter Seals, one set to each family in San Mateo County," Davenport and St. Clair said today, "and only 16,787 families have responded so far, which is about 13 per cent return."

"You can forget the Easter Seals now that Easter is over, but you can still send your $2 to help the Rehabilitation Center help take care of the 14,389 handicapped children and adults in our county," the co-chairmen asserted. Checks can be made out to "Easter Seals" and sent to the Center at 1764 Marco Polo Way, Burlingame, or care of your local postmaster.

Home, Party Condemned

Lee George Peraud, 56, a salesman of 1 Birch Lane, Pacific, spent the weekend in the county jail in Redwood City because he violated Pacific's uniform building code. Pacific police reported.

According to officers, Peraud was previously warned about parties in his shack in which he lives and told to either fix up his home or get out as the structure had been condemned by city officials.

Motion Picture On Martin Luther

"Martin Luther," a two hour motion picture originally shown in public theaters, will be presented this Sunday evening at 8 p.m. at the Seaciff

Community Church, 50 Northridge Drive, in Westlake. Sunday night's showing, free to the public, is sponsored by the Youth Fellowship of Seaciff Church, as part of their study of Protestant - Catholic views. The feature length cinema, described in the press as "an outstanding motion picture for our times," is scheduled for the early evening hour in order that families may bring their children without being out too late on a "night before school."

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

"Time for Fashion" is the theme — the date is May 16 — the place, Westmoor High School — the event, the annual fashion show presented each year by clothing classes in conjunction with the PTA.

Each year, too, it seems the girls get prettier, the clothes more chic. This year's show promises to be the most successful yet.

Following the theme of "Time," symbolized by grandfather pocket watch centerpieces, the girls will show clothes beginning with sunrise-pajamas and robes—right on through the day into sunset and glamorous "after-five" fashions.

The entire affair is a student production, including the refreshments following the fashion show—special "goodies" prepared and served by students from the food classes.

Commentators for the show are seniors Frances Rogers and Pam Altman, assisted by junior Bonnie Benner.

Do mark down the date on your calendar and plan to attend. We saw last year's show and was impressed by the professional fashion show which the girls present.

It is truly refreshing to find a leader who tackles a volunteer community job with such genuine zest and enthusiasm as displayed by our community leader this week.

Admitting that she was "scared stiff" when she was elected chairman of the new North Peninsula Circle of the Florence Crittenton Home of San Francisco, she nevertheless pitched right in and got the group off to a flying start and has been working like a beaver ever since.

We salute Jean Markovich as this week's community leader. She also is health and welfare chairman of Fernando Rivera PTA for the coming year. Other community activities include den mother for two years and teaching catechism at Our Lady of Mercy Church.

Residents of Daly City for 15 years, the Markovich family, husband, Pete, and four children, Frank, Michael, Peter, and Marjorie, live at 160 Northgate.

FASHION WHIRL: "Guys and Dolls" is the theme of the fashion show to be presented by the CYO High School Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The affair is scheduled for May 18 in the school hall, and an invitation is extended to the public to attend. Mrs. Isabel Liberti will be the commentator.

A capacity audience for last week's Mothers of All Faiths fashion show held at the Friar Room. Standouts in the show, Lois Edwards in a sparkling white sports outfit of arnel; Colleen Pritchard in a lovely blue wool Lilli Ann suit trimmed with Norwegian blue fox; dramatic full-length ball gown of gold worn by Adrienne Rieverts. Betty Porrozzo was the winner of the fox shrug.

SOCIAL WHIRL: Promising to be a highlight of the spring social swing is the annual dance of the Village Cooperative Nursery School scheduled for May 18 at the House of Parties in Daly City. The dance is open to the public. For tickets telephone Kathy Schappert (PL 6-6771) or Bonnie Groper (PL 6-3040). Margo Martin is chairman.

The magic of the Hawaiian Islands was brought to the Boyd residence last week as Susan and Alan entertained at a Hawaiian dinner party for the staff of the junior and senior high teen clubs and their friends. Also invited were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tomasello. All the guests wore South Sea Island costumes.

NEWS NOTES: The women of St. Martin's are busy collecting rummage for their coming sale on May 31 and June 1. They welcome any salable items of rummage. If you have any items to donate telephone Carol Och (WY 2-4936) or Jane Bonevito at PL 6-7753.

Busy rehearsing is the new community orchestra who will play at the coming recital of the Westlake Music Center scheduled for June 4 and 6. By the way, they are still interested in getting new members. Telephone the music center for more information.

Scheduled for this Thursday evening at the Holiday Inn is the monthly meeting of the Lionesses. Co-hostesses are Janel Felser and Josephine Putkey.

Between Us Gals:

Law Day Brings Nod To County Birthdate

By Bonnie Gillespie

With Spring comes the many days or weeks of special designation and note proclaimed far and near by people in position to make such proclamations... people like presidents, mayors and governors who speak in behalf of agencies concerned with public welfare, ethnic and religious groups, business and professional associations, lobbyists and just plain pushers of Days.

Our attention has been directed very recently to Public Schools Week, May Day, Family Week, Canada-America Week, Laughter Day, Invest in America Week, Music Week, National Library Week, Fellowship Day, Safety Seat Belt Month, Christian College Day, Arts Day and Rhododendron Days. And probably a few more that the writer has overlooked.

Some Days we observe with enthusiasm, others pass practically unnoticed by the majority and still others receive only a desultory nod of recognition.

Law Day falls into the latter category for most, (the writer included) usually. But this year, we felt almost exuberant about Law Day, mainly because we have been involved with The Law lately, in a nice way.

We've been spending some time in San Mateo County's quaint seat of government, contemplating, now and then, some of the wheels and eggs involved with Law and Justice (with capital letters).

Redwood City has always been an interesting place to visit, not only because it is the communal center of our county, but also because of the beautiful sign suspended over the El Camino Real at Redwood's north entrance which announces "Climate Best by Government Test."

Surprisingly, the weather usually fulfills that boast! Redwood is a town where summer clothes are always in view and for sale, where tree-shaded streets are numerous and where lazy green hills loom to the West while the busy Bayshore Freeway traffic rushes past on the East.

It's a town where people work, play and make their home, or lose it. Where they pay taxes, or penalties for avoiding them. Where dog licenses are purchased, the blessings of the planning commission doled, the wrath of a divorced spouse incurred, the first kiss from a just-adopted child bestowed and the bewildered look of a social-delinquent filtered from a facade of bravado.

Redwood City's importance as the hub of San Mateo County's administration is apparent to anyone viewing the city skyline. Three county buildings dominate the scene as they tower over their peaceful surroundings. They are the copper-domed Old Court House, the pink stucco New Court House and the gray County Office Building which is nearing completion.

Redwood City became the seat of county government in the summer of 1856, shortly after the first steps in the organization of such a government were made at neighboring Belmont.

Prior to that time and at the close of the war with Mexico, San Mateo was for six years a part of the County of San Francisco and was governed by the large city to the north. The sparsely populated area was allowed representatives on the S. F. county board of supervisors, but problems were far different from those in the S. F. metropolis. The rural portion of the county of San Francisco played an unimportant part in its politics and government, by virtue of its geographical distance from the center of population and interest.

Acting on a bill introduced by Senator Horace Hawes, later dubbed the "Father of San Mateo County," the California legislature passed the "Consolidation Act" which provided for the formation of a new county and for a seat of justice at "such a place as may be determined by the qualified electors of the county at the election of its first county officials."

As a result of that first election, held 107 years ago this month, Belmont was declared the county seat.

But the people of the young county brought charges that the election was unfair. Lawsuits followed the election and, after a full hearing of the case, some of the ballots were rejected. A new count made Redwood City the county seat, and a warehouse on the bank of Redwood Creek was rented to house officials and the courtroom.

Soon after, S. M. Mezes, one of the proprietors of Rancho de las Pulgas, donated a city block for the location of a court house. A brick building was constructed in 1858 for that purpose, and the present Old County Court House (the domed one) stands today on that site. A bronze tablet at the head of the interior stairway of the impressive building, complete in 1908, marks the generosity of Mezes and other owners of the ranch which got its unhappy name from the innumerable fleas infesting the Indian village that stood there.

Redwood City has shown steady progress since its inception. Known in Spanish-American days as the Embarcadero, because of the slough which was navigable up to what is now the center of the business district, it later bore the names of Cachinetac and Mezesville, for the gentleman who laid out the town in 1854. The name Redwood City recalls the period shortly after the California Gold Rush when lumbermen harvested

MEMOS FROM YOUR Stylist

By MR. ROBERT

An incidental—and a costly one—to woman's quest for allure is perfume. It requires two tons of roses to make a pound of rose oil, one of perhaps 100 essential oils which can be utilized in the making of perfume.

Several unlikely elements are included in the making of tantalizing scents. Ambergris, for example, used as a fixative in perfumery to carry and combine the scent of a blend, is an ailing whale's gallstone. A secretion from the civet cat, an Abyssinian skunk, is also used extensively in the making of the better perfumes. Whatever your interest in perfume, it is certain that you have a deep and critical interest in your hair. That is where MR. ROBERT'S SALON OF BEAUTY comes in. Operators and stylists who know and cleverly utilize every trick to make woman's crowning glory a reality are ready to serve you at MR. ROBERT'S SALON OF BEAUTY, 198 School St. Phone WY 2-1717.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: When a perfume bottle is emptied, it is a waste to stop it in a corner of a drawer. The scent will linger for a surprising time.

Rainbow Auxiliary Buffet Supper Slated

An international theme of "Around the World" provides the title and will inspire the decor for the dance and International Buffet Supper to be sponsored by the San Francisco Rainbow Auxiliary 2065, VFW on Saturday, May 18, in Room 1, of the War Memorial Building, Van Ness avenue and McAllister street, from 6 to 11 p.m.

Mrs. I. J. Svedise is the general chairman and her committee includes Mrs. Joseph Armanini, Mrs. Lloyd Kulp, Mrs. Mack Hall, Mrs. Leah Bauer, Mrs. Bobby Del Sol and Mrs. Irene Library. The menu has been planned to include foods from many lands, a spread to end them all, a superb smorgasbord with all the trimmings. Foods to warm the heart and stir the memory, with no calories counted allowed. Decor has been carried out at each table to represent a different country.

The public is invited to attend and join in the fun of food, prizes, and dancing. The music will be under the direction of Chrystal Thomas and her White Squadron Troop, featuring singer John Page.

Dinner for adults is $2, children under twelve $1.25. This gay evening is a must, come early and stay late.

the fine stand of nearby Redwoods and shipped large quantities of redwood timber from the port.

Redwood trees may still be viewed in Redwood City, one only a block from the New Court House. But replicas of the 107-year-old county's romantic past may be seen wherever the official emblem is used. The woody giant forms the pictorial center of the county's colorful seal.

Within the Colusa sandstone walls of the Old Court House and inside the starkly modern New Court House, most of the important decisions of county government are formulated and administered.

It is with that governmental machinery that we have been involved lately. But that's another story!

Vista Mar School News

During the first week in May Mrs. Paula Shepard and Mrs. Marsha Zusan's first grade classes at Vista Mar School went on a study trip to the San Francisco Zoo.

The trip was taken as a prelude to their unit on wild animals. The boys and girls took bag lunches and had a picnic at the Pavilion overlooking the bears' grotto. The children enjoyed talking about the size and shape of the animals, their colorings, the foods they eat, and whether they were herbivorous or carnivorous.

They also discussed the animals' natural habitat, wondering whether their home might have been in a warm or cold climate, in the jungle, or the plains. The zoo is an ever changing, fascinating place for young and old alike—a place the children are always eager to revisit.

The bride wore a satin gown and olive-green and powder blue veil.

A reception was held at the House of Lawton in San Francisco. The couple honeymooned in Las Vegas. They will make their future home in Westlake.

Fuchsia Ball Set For May 18

"Roses for the fairest of the fair..." seems to be the order of the day to adorn tables at the annual Fuchsia Ball Dinner Dance given by Mary's Help Hospital Guild on May 18 at the Fairmont Hotel.

Mrs. Fred Mortara, invitations chairman, and Mrs. L. Warren Price, general chairman put final touches to arrangements for the Ball.

Working hand in hand with the Daughters of Charity in their many facets of humanitarian work provide numerous comforts for the patients.

Proceeds from this Ball will be donated to the new hospital to be built in Northern San Mateo County, in this area of prime necessity. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Helen Vollert, JU 6-3786 or Mrs. Thomas Pope, LO 6-8317.

The chapter's ways and means committee, Mrs. C. M. Sheridan, chairman, and Mrs. Art Jepson, co-chairman, have scheduled a dance recital on June 23, at 2 p.m. in South San Francisco High School, the proceeds to be put into a special fund for the new Mary's Help Hospital.

Thomas Edison Students Tour Civic Center

Students in Mrs. Hergert's fourth grade at Thomas Edison School visited the San Francisco civic center last week. Among the highlights of the trip was a guided tour through the city hall, conducted by Mrs. Gillett, head of the information department.

The students were permitted to visit a court room while court was in session and were welcomed by Judge Edward F. O'Farrell.

The class also saw the supervisors' chambers, Mayor Christopher's office, the parking meter collection office and the voting department, where the children were given instructions in the operation of a voting machine.

The class also was treated to an interesting visit through the opera house with Julian Bagley as the host. The group viewed the opera house from all angles, stood on stage, saw the large dome lights in operation, sat in the box seats, visited a dressing room and also inspected the area where the heads of state met during the formation of the United Nations.

Oceana PTA Holds Meeting May 9

Following a short business meeting, installation of officers will be held. Incoming president for the 1963-64 year will be Mrs. Bert Thomas, Nu Sigma, Daly City; vice president, Mrs. William Wilson, Eta Gamma, San Bruno; secretary, Mrs. Harry Lis, and treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Mills, both Tau Gamma, Pacifica.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Clyde Osborne, will be the installing officer. She is being assisted by Mrs. Fernandez.

Registration Begins At Laguna Salada

The Laguna Salada School District will hold summer school registration on May 6, 7 and 8 at each of the local schools. Summer school will operate for a period of five weeks, beginning July 1 and ending August 2. The program is open to all students residing in the Laguna Salada School District in grades one to seven.

The objectives of summer school are to extend and reinforce the students' knowledge of the basic subject areas, offer enrichment activities related to the fundamental subjects, and to offer some experiences in subject areas which are not extensively taught during the regular school year.

Since the summer school program must be financially self-sustaining, it is imperative that students, once enrolled, attend every day of the five weeks session. Parents intending to enroll their children in summer school should plan vacations and trips so that they do not conflict with summer school.

Garden Village PTA Installs Officers

Those installed at the April meeting of the Garden Village PTA included Mrs. Jack Mitchell, president; C. J. Martin-dale, honorary vice president; Mrs. John Zaplan, vice president; Mrs. Charles Fleischer, recording secretary, and Mrs. James Katapodis, corresponding secretary.

Others installed were Mrs. William Cloonan, financial secretary; Mrs. William Proctor, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Brown, historian; Robert Crawford, auditor, and Mrs. George Schneider, parliamentarian.

Installing officer was Mrs. Jack Bertken, past president of the unit.

A delight to parents was the segment of a typical kindergarten day presented by Mrs. Kinsey and her afternoon class in a demonstration of the program preparatory to first grade learning.

Den 3 of Cub Pack 259 led the evening's color guard, and fifth and sixth grade room mothers served as hostesses.

Tigers Take Invitational

Ten records were written as Terra Nova won the Westmoor Invitational track and field meet last Friday, host Westmoor placing second and one a half point ahead of Jefferson in the closest and fastest competition of the NPL season.

The Ram's top sprinter, Roy Pinelli, set two records for the meet, turning the 100 in 10.1 and the 220 in the fastest time recorded on the Northern Peninsula, 21.6.

Winning Terra Nova's Dan Vincent lived up to early season expectations, running a tremendous 1:56 half mile to nose out Oceana's Bob Skiffers, high man for the NPL in the King City Relays.

South City's ace hurdler, Roberts, won the highs and lows, the latter in the record time of 20.4.

New Westmoor Invitational times were also set in the shot putt, the pole vault, and in the century. The B's competition, won handily by Jefferson, saw four records set, the 660, the 1320, the low hurdle and the relay.

SEA BOWL

How many times have you heard the expression, "He's just trying to run the league?" Probably many times. One of the greatest satisfactions in belonging to a league should be the fact that it is a democratic organization.

Each league has its own set of league officers and another group of semi-officials which comprise the governing body of the league. Known as the executive board, their most important function is to govern the league, insure adherence to the set of rules adopted by the league, and to settle questions of infractions of those rules.

Imagine for a moment, if you can, just what a league would be like if these principles were not adhered to. Averages would go unchecked, teams and individuals would be able to drop out as they please, no prize money would be secure, and the law of the jungle would be in full swing.

Most leagues are direct reflections of their set of officers and the leagues will be as strong or as weak as the people who are responsible for them.

"Ora Mayer will appear at Sea Bowl on Wednesday, May 8, at 1 p. m. in a program designed for the children of this area.

Buzz Fazio will appear on Thursday, May 9, at 10 a. m. in a presentation for the men and women who can participate. If you can arrange to see these stars, be at the Sea Bowl at these times.

BUZZ FAZIO, famous Brunswick star bowler, who will appear at Swanson's Westlake Bowl Saturday, May 11, at 10 a. m., will give an exhibition as well as instruction as part of a week-long "Learn to Bowl" program.

Buzz Fazio to Appear At Local Lanes

Buzz Fazio, one of the greatest bowlers of all time, will roll into Daly City on Thursday, May 9.

The diminutive Brunswick bowling star is scheduled for an 8 p. m. appearance at Serra Bowl, following a 10 a. m. demonstration at Westlake Bowl.

Although small in size—he is only 5-6, 146 pounds—Fazio has been a giant on the bowling lanes. He's one of the few bowlers in history recognized as both a top team bowler and individual star.

Some of his biggest victories were achieved in the 1955 ABC Masters, the Detroit Times Classic three times, the 1956 Michigan State All Events and the Maxie Kosof Endurance Classic three times. In the grueling 40-game endurance test, Buzz holds two records—highest score, 290, and most total pins, 8,535 (an average of better than 213).

As a team captain, the ten-pin veteran led the historic Stros of Detroit to three straight BPAA National Team Match Game championships and one ABC Team All Events title.

Also as captain, Fazio directed Falstaff to the 1958 ABC Team and Team All Events championship.

His other achievements include: A record-tying 300 game in the 1950 All-Star Tournament.

Five-time billing as All-American.

Reign as "King of Bowling" in Detroit in 1955.

First 800 series on live TV.

Jeff Sweeps NPL Swimming Finals

The Jefferson High school pool was filled to breathing room only as all three Jeff swimming teams swept to the title in the first North Peninsula Swimming Finals.

The Jeff varsity mermen managed an upset over the Warriors, who had twice defeated them in dual meets, churning past them for a 107-92 win. Terra Nova and Oceana trailed with 55 and 4 points respectively.

South City's Mike Shelton established two marks for the infant league with a 24.7 second 50 free and a 1:04 flat 100 yard fly. Teammate Ken Wertenburg was equally impressive, lapping the closest man with apparent ease as he won the 400 yard free in 5:13.2 25 seconds in front of Fromm of Terra Nova.

The most exciting race of the afternoon came in the 100 yard backstroke when the Warriors' Belli was upset by both Wallace and Willoughby of Jeff. No more than two tenths of a second separated the first from the third place, the race being won in 1:12.6 by Wallace. Willoughby had never, prior to the meet, gone under 1:18 for the event.

The biggest surprise of the day came in the lightweight, where a scoring error originally gave the C meet to South City, and where the times for many events were better in the B's and C's than were the varsity clockings.

In spite of the fierce competition in the 100 yard back in the varsity race the Jeff's Jim Menconi turned a still faster time—coming down 2.5 seconds from his fastest previous best time of 1:15 to register a 1:12.5.

In the 100 yard breaststroke, Dunlop of SSF won the varsity race in 1:15.3 but teammate Bill Thompson turned a 1:15.1 in the B race.

The 100 yard freestyle, another varsity race won by inches, found both the C's and B's bettering the clocking. The A race was won in 1:00.1, the B's race in 59.6 while the C's race was won in a minute flat.

Mickey Nance of Oceana and Jim Iverson of Jefferson seem to lead the assault on the varsity's traditional superiority—but there is more than enough assistance.

Not only the lightweight teams showing very promising strength, the league is becoming more equally divided, with the B's being won by Jeff with 80 points, with South City, Oceana and Terra Nova following with 68, 47 and 35 points respectively. Jeff again lead the scoring as the NPL followed in the same order with scores of 68½, 35½ and 21 points respectively.

Next week the North Coast divisionals will find Jeff on hand with their record-setting freestyle relay team, South San Francisco will take their medley relay team while Oceana will be traveling with Mickey Nance.

WAITING for everyone else to finish—Ken Wertenburg of South City won the 400 yard freestyle in 5:13.2, over a lap ahead of the next swimmer to finish the grueling test. All records for NPL swimming were established during the two days of trials and finals held at the Jeff pool. Jefferson swept all three meets.

'Hire a Veteran' Week to Begin

"Hire a Veteran Week" will be observed during the week beginning Sunday, May 12, it was noted by Vincent Murphy, Daly City postmaster, in a recent interview.

In speaking about the annual observance, Murphy stated: "It is aimed primarily to call attention to the public and to employers, that among the unemployed there are many veterans with useful skills that can be utilized by discerning employers. The State Department of Employment is required by law to give priority of referral to veterans if they are qualified; employers will, if they avail themselves of the services of the department, automatically assist those unemployed veterans who are seeking gainful employment."

Dorothy Moyle hosted over 60 of her A-J Nursery bowlers to the annual League dinner, complete with corsages and gifts last Thursday. A good time was had by all as Dorothy presided.

The Westlake Knolls Summer League started last week with Angelo Baldelli leading the strike parade by shooting a 199 game and 584 series.

John Hogan did the same thing for nothing that Dick Agee did for $21,000 on the "Make That Spare" program, that is, convert the 4-7-9-10 split. John brought the house down as he calmly converted this almost impossible split in the final night of the Westlake Classic.

The G.E.T. summer league took off last night bowling each Tuesday at 1 p.m. The late starting hour is necessitated by the closing time of the store.

Len Anthony and Sharon Phelps led the Telco Mixed Summer League as Len shot a big 235 game and 590 series with Sharon posting a 468 series on a high game of 162.

Neva Runningwolf led both men and women in the 99ers Mixed Fives with a 210 game and 567 as Jay Hooker took second honors with 195 and 565.

Bill Greer did some high class practicing for the summer league last Tuesday night as he bowled a 300 game in a doubles match game. After eleven straight jockey hits, his twelfth ball was a "Brooklyn hit" that carried all ten pins for the third perfect game in Westlake history. Bill's partner was Ed Morris while their opponents were Bob Kern and Clem Morales whose 233 game was overshadowed by Bill's effort for which he received $100 plus a membership plaque for the Brunswick 300 Club.

New bowlers are flocking to Westlake this week to take part in the "Learn to Bowl" program and watch the exhibitions. It will be standing room only Saturday morning as Buzz Fazio will be on hand at 10 a.m. for bowling demonstration and instruction.

Phyllis Beaulieu and Peg Miller tied for high game honors in the YWCA League Tuesday morning and Peg went on to become high series winner with 475.

Sunday, May 19 at 9:30 a.m. is the time set for the organizational meeting of the Father-Mother-Son-Daughter League. For the summer months, the teams will be composed of any family combination of parent and child. Advance registration may be made with Rick or Primo.

Del Muskin took first prize in the new Monday afternoon 3-6-9 Singles with a 707 total followed by Jerry Fisher with 642 and Evelyn Goldkuhl with 610. More and more of the ladies are taking part in this popular weekly feature.

Frank Sell joined the 600 Club Monday night as he led the Marche Club League on opening night with a 214

NPL Baseball Early Predictions Come True

The NPL baseball standings looked, over the weekend, just like Westmoor mentor Rod Losberger said they would. But the season is only half over—and Losberger may only be half right.

Everyone is playing ball as though Losberger's word was law, however: South San Francisco struck once—for seven runs in one inning—to drop Jefferson, 7-1; Westmoor collected five undeserved tallies and defeated Terra Nova, 6-4, and El Camino exploded for 11 runs to whip Oceana, 11-4.

Except for one tuning, the Jeffs would have taken the Warriors' game closely, scoring all of their runs in the bottom of the second.

Eleven batters faced Tiger pitching, only six of them having any right to do so—but then...

The Tigers picked up two runs in their half of the second, then pushed across single runs in the fifth and sixth frames.

El Camino also exploded for six runs, erupting in the fourth stanza after being limited to two runs in the stingy third. Oceana, for the umpteenth time, out-hit their opposition, but again committed a stack of errors, although not as many as did Westmoor; the Sharks booting a total of six plays.

Westmoor's Rams, experiencing troubles on the mound, will leave their hurler under wraps until this afternoon as the Rams face undefeated South City. Oceana, looking to the hitting power of Doug Rhodes, Jim Cook and Dave Westphal are hoping to destroy the Rams Friday.

Terra Nova, the team that came up with the pitcher of the week—Curt Hibbard—who gave up only two hits in nine innings against two teams—faces Jeff on Friday with no one willing to predict the outcome.

Jeff mentor Steve Mazzera is not one to suggest defeat, and has declared Operations Salvage. The key to the current Jeff drought, Mazzera stated, was the Indians' lack of clutch hitting. "If we could come up with a few key hits with men on—something we've failed to do—we could have a winning second round."

Salvation Army's Work Helps Unfortunates

"The people we help are those with nowhere else to turn. They're at rock bottom. The only thing they know is: 'If you're in trouble, go to the Salvation Army.'"

That's the way a retired Navy chaplain named Victor Morgan explains the quiet, self-effacing work of some 100 San Mateo County citizens who are the long arm of the Salvation Army's "hand-to-man" welfare work.

They belong to the county's 13 Salvation Army volunteer units, the Army's grass-roots approach to solving human problems with human compassion.

Morgan is welfare chairman of the 20-year-old City of San Mateo unit. Located in one of the county's heavy population areas, it is one of the busiest and most effective. Morgan, former senior chaplain on the Navy carrier Essex, lives at 3 Emerald court, San Mateo.

Morgan's welfare committee helped some 100 persons last year. Most were referred by the county welfare department, community churches, other private welfare groups.

The volunteers are ordinary people... retired men like Morgan, housewives like Mrs. Mary Lott of 55 West Santa Inez avenue, San Mateo; community leaders like Charles Benton, secretary-treasurer of the Construction and General Laborers' Union, Local 389.

They get the job done. And they do it with the money contributed each year by San Mateo citizens to the Army's operating fund drive.

"This is the kind of thing the Army has always been noted for," Morgan explained. "Most of those we help are either ineligible for public assistance or are having a long, dry wait for it."

"Last year, for instance, we helped a 20-year-old mother with a six-month-old child. Her husband was in jail. She had nothing and had several weeks to wait for state aid. We provided rent, food, and clothes. Got her on her feet. Today she has a job... is a useful citizen."

"We often help transients, too," added Mrs. Lott. Last year a family with two children had a car breakdown on the freeway. We got the car fixed, provided lodging while they waited, gave money for gas to get them to their home in Oklahoma."

Another important activity is collecting food, toys and clothing for needy families at Christmas time. Last year, Benton arranged union labor to construct collection booths and baskets were prepared for 18 families in San Mateo City.

The volunteers also help to refer unwed mothers to Booth Memorial Hospital in Oakland and alcoholics to the Food Experts Forecast Prices

Americans, already the world's best fed people, may spend as little as 12 per cent of their income a quarter century from now, the vice president in charge of Bank of

Salvation Army Social Service Center in San Francisco. It doesn't take much to keep a unit of eager, unpaid volunteers like those in San Mateo City going (last year the group got along on a sparse $600).

Their labor... and their love... goes a long way. A few more dollars would help it go even further. The Army's activities in San Mateo County are financed solely by dollars raised in each year's operating fund drive.

America's agricultural activities said here.

Earl Coke, addressing the California Growth Conference on Food for Man in the Future, forecast still greater changes in the next 25 years than occurred in the agricultural revolution of the past two and a half decades.

One of the most far-reaching changes, he predicted, will be consolidation of family farms into larger incorporated family commercial farms integrating all enterprises from planting to marketing.

In California, production will likely come from about 50,000 farms, half as many as the state had in 1960, Coke told conference members meeting on the University of California's Davis campus.

Long Range Planning for Counties in Bay Area

A comprehensive long-range planning program for the nine Bay Area counties was approved by the Board of Supervisors at its meeting April 23.

The study to evaluate and plan the future development of the 75 square mile area made by the Association of Bay Area Governments. San Mateo County's share of the cost will be $3,725 a year for the initial two-year program. In addition, local technical help will be provided.

The regional plan will utilize the plans of county, city, state, and federal governments and will encompass the three basic elements of land use, circulation and community facilities.

The overall goal of the program is the development of a continuous planning process which will result in effective cooperation and coordination both among local governments within the San Francisco Bay region and between these governments and the state and federal agencies involved in regional development activities.

San Mateo County can expect to benefit greatly from this area-wide program, County Manager E. R. Stallings told the Board of Supervisors.

"By our participation in the ABAG plan, this county will most likely receive an additional $77,000 in federal funds toward the purchase of needed recreational lands at Coyote Point. The same is true for our plans for a county-wide waste disposal program and the Pescadero Creek dam and recreational project."

"If the county is not participating in an area-wide planning group, it is eligible for only 20 per cent of land purchase costs. As part of a regional plan the county can become eligible for state and federal assistance up to 30 per cent," the manager added.

Legion Auxiliary Announces Poppy Days

"By wearing an American Legion Auxiliary poppy you can give your local community a lift."

That's the word from Mrs. (William H.) Lucille Most, Poppy Chairman of the 26th District, American Legion Auxiliary, upon announcing that Poppy Days this year is set for Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25.

The annual "wearing of the poppy" honors disabled veterans and is a memorial to Americans who died in the two World Wars and the Korean Conflict.

"By getting your poppy in San Mateo County," says Mrs. Most, "you not only help the hospitalized veteran but you help make possible many worthy projects in the community."

For each poppy, Mrs. Most says, one cent goes to the material and three cents goes to the veteran making the poppy. The "greatest share by far" aids needy veterans and their families, and sponsors rehabilitation through occupational therapy. "We're eager to see the poppy drive be successful everywhere, but it's success here at home that enables us to give support to local causes. So we hope San Mateo County will keep their money at home."

Last year, some $2976 was allocated by the 26th District Auxiliary to Christmas gifts for needy children in San Mateo County. Another $2502 went for food, $1712 for clothing, and $790 for medical care. Poppy Day proceeds were channeled into local hospitals, Christmas parties, and teenage dances. Food baskets were distributed at Christmas.

Thanksgiving, and Easter. Some 76 volunteers donated a total of 565 work hours to County hospitals during the year.

Participating in the Poppy Day observance are over 100 volunteers from the 14 Legion Auxiliary units in the District. Unit chairmen working with Mrs. Most are Mesdames Sally Vanover, Brisbane; Phyllis Brown, Broadmoor; Lelia M. McKeon, Burlingame; Lucille Besnyl, Coastside; Marjorie Perry, Daly City; Iris Sanford, East Palo Alto; Lois Sharp, Menlo-Adebe; Rosemary Reed, Millbrae; Vera Berg, Pacifica; Alice Priest, Redwood City; Charlie T. Dill, San Bruno; Lorraine Long, San Carlos; Norma Brunell, San Mateo; and Irene Signarowitz, South San Francisco.

Featured on the evening program will be an address by Alex Horne on: "Transitions from Operative to Speculative Masonry," to which Master Masons of the Bay Region have been invited to attend. The affair will take place in the Masonic Temple, 25 Van Ness Avenue.

What Every Woman Should Know About Her Automobile

By WENDY WHEELER

Auto-Torium Feminine Driving Consultant

Belts come in all sizes, colors, materials . . . and I regret to say that my belts are a little tighter than they used to be . . . but there is one belt at least that is always fashionable and always fits. Give up? Seat belts, naturally!

May has been declared "Seat Belt Month" in the Bay Area and I thought this would be the perfect time to re-emphasize the importance of these safety belts . . . not only for yourself, but for every member of your family. You don't think twice about strapping your little child into a high chair, for instance, to prevent him from falling out . . . how much more reasonable, then, to strap him in when taking a trip in the car!

The San Francisco Chapter of the National Safety Council, which is sponsoring this seat belt campaign, along with the Chamber of Commerce and the San Francisco Medical Society, reports that 5,000 lives a year could be saved in the U.S. by the use of automobile seat belts. Now, that's quite a figure!

When you stop to realize that there are more cars registered in the State of California than any other state—nine million of them—it seems even more urgent that we, as wives and mothers, do something to insure the safety of our families. And the facts show that seat belts are the most effective single safety item yet devised which significantly reduce highway deaths and injuries.

Did you know, while we're quoting statistics, that more than one-half of all traffic accidents causing injury or death occur at speeds of less than 40 miles an hour? More over, two out of three traffic deaths occur within a 25 mile radius of the victim's home. So while you may think you're safer driving to the grocery store than to New York, it just isn't true! And it only serves to point out the necessity of wearing seat belts whenever you get behind the wheel of an automobile. I've made it a personal rule to fasten my seat belt before I even turn on the ignition . . .

I could go on and on with facts, but I'm sure that you are all aware that seat belts add to driving safety . . . although, of course, nothing ever takes the place of a careful driver.

If you don't already have seat belts, do Wendy and yourself a favor and have them installed not only in the front seat, but in the back seat, too. There are special seat belts available for children which are easy to use and any child of three can operate. For younger children, there are belts you can buy which strap them in while in their "kiddie-seats."

When shopping for seat belts, an item that may save your life, it's no time to be bargain hunting. Belts vary in price and quality, so be sure to buy only approved seat belts. One outstanding belt I am familiar with is the Hickok Belt, which is carried by Auto-Torium Stores, and which is the first belt to

IMSA Meeting Held in Oakland

Battalion Chief Wayne Alexander and Fireman Maurice Sciaroni of the Fire Alarm Bureau attended an International Municipal Signalmen Association Conference in Oakland.

The discussion included Fire Alarm Systems in Schools and Mercantile, The Use of Microwave Radio in Conjunction with Fire Alarm and Radio Communications.

The approval of the famous Underwriters Laboratories. There are other good belts on the market, too, so be certain, I repeat, to buy the best.

If you already have seat belts, wear them . . . and urge your family, friends, and neighbors to do the same. If you don't have them, this "Seat Belt Month" is the time to get them, don't you think?

Future Physicists Talk at Science Club

Future Westmoor physicists Mark Stutsman and Walt Bachmann, both having interests in the aviation sciences, spoke April 24 before a meeting of the Science Club on "Rockets and Rocket Fuels." Mark, recent recipient of a state scholarship, explained the talk was based both on his experience with vehicle design and on research he had done for a physics project on friction.

Now a junior, Walt Bachmann has done research in remote controlled guidance systems and is currently engaged in a chemistry study.

Stepping up to the podium today will be senior Steve Lerner. In another of a series of student lectures, Steve will talk on parapsychology (extrasensory perception).

Club president Ken Lehre thinks "the club is more active this year than it has been since 1961, when the student body was split into Westmoor and Terra Nova." To give further evidence of this, Ken foresees a field trip in late May to Phoenix Lake, breaking away from the traditional outing at Moss Beach.

Judge Blum Guest at Civics Class

Superior Court Judge Frank Blum was a guest of Westmoor High Mr. Dexter Leland's second period civics class on May 1, Law Day.

Judge Blum was asked to speak on the application of our Constitution to civil rights and, in particular, Supreme Court decisions reflecting the ease with which the Constitution can be applied to present day problems. The talk was designed to supplement the class's study of civil rights.

The recent school prayer decision rendered by the Supreme Court was used as an example of the Court's ability to draw from past cases and history, and then make a sound judgment. Judge Blum also discussed the state judiciary in order to show how a state court decision can affect the entire nation.

Tough Test For Driver Competitors

Eighteen hundred members in one family and only one car seems to be posing a problem for Westmoor High School as only eight out of sixty Junior competitors for behind the wheel drivers training could be accepted after a recent California Vehicle Code test.

Following a six week course on the Vehicle Code consisting of 12 one-half hour lessons required for graduation, the sixty took the Vehicle Code examination. Out of these only the eight top students could be accepted for behind the wheel training, not required for graduation.

Being a one car family seems to be limiting the number of students who can be accepted and, according to Mr. George Grosser, who along with Howard Loeffler teaches the fater school course, it is too close to the end of the year to hope to sneak in another group for the 12 lessons.

Mr. Grosser also stated that the use of another car would mean that both he and Mr. Loeffler could teach at the same time instead of having to take turns with the car. The school is presently using a 1963 Ford Fairlane automatic.

By taking the behind the wheel course male students can save up to 30 per cent or between $50 and $100 on insurance.

Teen Clubs Plan Special Outings

Taking time out from their preparation for the big city-wide Springfest, two junior high teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department have planned special outings for Saturday, May 11.

The Westlake Swingers Junior Teen Club which meets at the Westlake Park Clubhouse is planning a Beach Party to Montara Beach on the San Mateo County Coastline. Plans call for the group to leave the clubhouse by private cars at 10 a.m., returning at 5 p.m.

Cost of the trip will be 60 cents for members and 75 cents for their guests which includes all you can eat (hot dogs, salad, potato chips, soft drinks) and insurance. A series of games and races will be scheduled to add to the fun.

Flood Park in San Mateo is the Saturday destination of the Imperials Junior High Teen Club which meets at the War Memorial Community Center. Leaving by school bus at 9 a.m. from the War Memorial Building, members and their guests will journey to the park for a fun filled day of swimming, volleyball, tennis, horseshoes and softball.

Cost of the trip is 75 cents for members and 85 cents for guests which includes transportation, swimming fee, and insurance, as well as a special surprise. Members are reminded to bring a sack lunch and get their permission slips in by Friday night, May 10. The bus is expected to return by 5 p.m.

Artistic Skill Seen In Industrial Display

Hammering, sawing, patience and hard work went into the varied items in the Industrial Arts display case at Westmoor High School. All of the articles have been on display since Open House.

Artistic as well as useful pieces made in Metal Shop are on display. Included are copper bowls which could be used for decorative purposes, hammers, an example of metal grinding and smoothing.

A very interesting cut-away visual view of a carburetor is on display for the Auto Shop portion. This piece was painstakingly done by Westmoor's Industrial Arts Man-of-the-Month, Rick Fields. The difficulty of the piece was working with the actual parts and spreading them out to enable the observer to view the internal construction of the carburetor.

Being displayed by the drafting class are some examples of mechanical drawing exercises including an interesting color scale drawing of an ultra-modern cliff house.

Also being shown are the various components for a radio, used by students in the Electric and Radio Shops.

The display cabinet is filled with numerous pieces of work done completely by students in the Industrial Arts program.

Other students who have projects on display are Thomas Colangelo, Jeff Greene, John Hutcheson, Tom Passinal, Bryce Stockinger, John Stone and Don West.

Industrial Arts teachers who participated in arranging the displays are Mr. George Christenson, department head; Mr. George Simon, Mr. Charles Medeiros, Mr. Lawrence Carlson, Mr. Leslie Vogt and Mr. Dominick Polillo.

Terra Nova Splash Party

Terra Nova seniors held another money-making project May 3 to earn funds for the senior ball, a picnic and the graduation party.

The event was a dunk-and-dance. From 7 until 8:15 p.m., there was swimming in the pool, and from 8:30 until 10:30 p.m. there was dancing in the gymnasium. The dunk-and-dance was open to seniors and juniors and their guests. Everyone had a real ball.

On April 26, two senior girls, Barbara Sims and Betsy Morrison, were notified that they had been awarded scholarships by the Laguna Salada Teachers Association. Both girls are planning to attend the University of California.

Gene Nelson

May 18 Teen Dance Features Disk Jockey

Gene Nelson, popular KYA disc jockey, will highlight the Annual Junior High Teen Clubs Springfest "Dance Where Ya Wan'a," Saturday, May 18, at the War Memorial Community Center.

Tickets for this event are on sale from executive council members at 50 cents for members and 75 cents for their guests. The dance is scheduled from 7 to 10 p.m. with the doors opening at 6:45 p.m. Dress for the evening is summery dresses for the young ladies and sport shirts and slacks and a sport coat or sweater for the boys.

Ticket sales are going forward at great speed as each of the clubs compete to win this phase of the five section intra-club competition for the Springfest Perpetual Trophy. Other contests to be competed in include the talent show, twist contest, king and queen personality contest and the decorations contest.

The decorations contest will feature each club decorating a portion of the War Memorial Community Center around a phase of the central theme.

The Women's Missionary Council of Bethel Church of Pacific will sponsor a mother and daughter banquet at the May 10 meeting. This will be in recognition of Mother's Day, May 12.

Mrs. Helen Amrine, director of the junior girls department, has announced that her girls will present each mother with a surprise during the evening. The girls have made these surprises especially for this activity, in honor and in appreciation of all mothers.

Mrs. Muriel Jean Ingham, president of Bethel's Women's Missionary Council, reports that as an added feature various projects undertaken by the group during the year will be on display.

Persons interested in becoming an active participant of this group should contact Mrs. Ingham at EL 9-3197 for further information.

National Family Week At Broadmoor Church

The Broadmoor Church of the Nazarene, Washington St. and Edgeworth Ave., Daly City will emphasize National Family Week with a series of services, beginning May 9 and continuing through Sunday, May 12. The services will be at 7:30 p.m. each evening and at 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Sunday.

Rev. Paul Martin of San Francisco is the special speaker. His messages will be directed to the needs of families today. Mr. Martin currently speaks in Churches over the nation and just recently completed services in the First Church of the Nazarene in Phoenix, Arizona. He is in demand for Youth Camps and Adult Groups.

For several years he was director of the Youth Program of the Northern California District Church of the Nazarene. He is author of a number of books among which are "Ask the Man Who Has It," "Teen-Ager, You Can Be Christian Too!" and a devotional book for youth entitled, "Good Morning, Lord."

Mr. Martin's messages are filled with humorous anecdotes and illustrations from life which keep the attention of the listener.

On Sunday, May 12, Rev. Martin will have a special sermon for Mother's Day. Raised in a Nazarene Parsonage of a father and mother who were ministers Mr. Martin is able

Presby Organ Fund Sounds "Hole" Note

The fund to purchase and install a new organ and sound system at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church received a good boost last week with the announcement that friends and members of the church will be able to purchase "hole" notes between now and June 5, the date upon which as many baker's dozens of doughnuts as have been ordered up to that time will be delivered to the church for pick-up by their purchasers.

Shirley and Pete Pappas, proprietors of Jerry's Doughnut Shop at Fulton and Divisadero Sts. in San Francisco, long-time members at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, will be baking all night on the 8th to fulfill the order.

The plan is quite simple. A baker's dozen (13) doughnuts costs $1, all of which goes to the Margaret Pauline Brown Memorial Organ Fund. Pete and Shirley donate all the materials and the labor. Members of the three choirs at the 87th Street church will be selling the orders, as their contribution toward the fund-raising activities. Orders may also be placed by phoning PL 5-0597.

Charlotte Spruiell, secretary of the Organ Fund, announced that over half the needed $10,000 has already been received or pledged, and that the committee members were visiting organ installations in the Bay area churches to determine the differences among the types available to the church.

A unique progress chart for the fund has been placed in the church narthex, a representation of an organ stop series. 200 circles of $50 pledge value each are illustrated, and upon receipt of a pledge that circle or "stop" is pulled. Friends and former pupils of the late Margaret Pauline Brown, long-time educator and civic leader in Daly City and Colma, are invited to contribute to the organ fund in her memory. All donations are recorded in the church Book of Remembrances.

The Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, pastor of Broadmoor Presbyterian said, "All of us on the Organ Committee are delighted with the progress of the campaign, and look forward with great anticipation to the final selection and installation of our new music system. The response of our parishioners and friends continues to be heart-warming. We usually don't anticipate a note coming due, but this one we'll welcome with open ears and joyous souls."

Broadmoor Presbyterian holds twin services at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m., with Sunday School for all ages and nursery care for infants provided.

Westlake Baptist Mother-Daughter Nite

When is a rose not a rose? Mrs. Rodney Schaubroeck is keeping the ladies guessing about the forthcoming mother-daughter dinner and fashion show on May 17 at 6:30 p.m. at the Westlake Community Baptist Church.

The theme will be Rose in Bloom and mothers and daughters are busy trying to guess the riddle which is the clue for the evening's entertainment: "Rose in bloom is sweet rose to bloom is beautiful, it's also good to eat — what is it?"

Reservations for the affair may be made through the church office by calling PLaza 6-5400.

CHURCH NEWS Westlake Baptist Work Day Complete Success

The work day scheduled by the Westlake Community Baptist Church at the La Honda Redwood Glen Camp was a real success, according to Bill White, president of the Men's Fellowship group.

Some of the energetic men who gave of their time and talents were Pastor Lynn Hodges and his son, Bill White, Ed Goldkuhl, J. McPherson and two sons and Glenn Gibson.

They helped crews erect tent platforms for the "Cliff-

Dwellers," put in a storage tank and braced water lines, drained the 110,000-gallon swimming pool of accumulated rain water and bulldozed and cleared a large entrance parking area of debris.

The accommodations at Redwood Glen Camp are limited and the camp operates at capacity each summer. Mrs. Glenn Gibson, in charge of reservations, urges parents planning to send their children to get their names to her at once so that no one will be disappointed.

Interesting Comparison

We offer our congratulations to our San Mateo competitor whose local area paper reached a high point of 32 pages and 3027 inches of display advertising last week.

At the same time we look at our own record of the past six months at the Westlake Times and The Record where we have averaged 30½ standard pages and 3138 local display inches per week.

Other interesting comparative figures are that during this time the Westlake Times and The Record have had a 40 page, 38 page and 36 page paper, six 34 page papers and four 32 page papers.

Total advertising for the period has averaged 3488 column inches, classified 158 inches and legals 110 inches per week.

One factor not to be overlooked is that the Westlake Times and The Record carried only local advertising from merchants within our circulation area—none of it was on a pick-up basis from other papers which tends to attract shoppers to areas away from local merchants.

All of which we feel reinforces our slogan that the Westlake Times and The Record are "The local papers with the local interest."

It's About Time

Seat belts to protect adult motorists from the hazards of the highway have now become a fact-of-life. With legislation requiring such protection either passed or pending in 32 states, and with millions of Americans dutifully buckling themselves into their car seats for a trip to the corner store, comes the dawn!

What about the little people — from babes-in-arms to the squirming, unpredictable four- and five-year-olds — for whom grown-up seat belts are no protection? These are the ones whose physical security we usually think of first. But this time somebody — the whole seat belt industry, in fact — goofed.

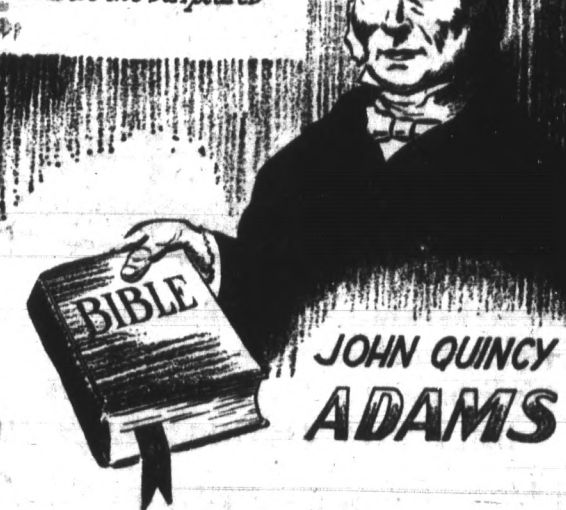

It remained for a Miami housewife and mother, Mrs. R. H. Card, alarmed at the perils of driving with one arm while protecting her young son with the other, to do something. She, herself, designed the first infant seat belt and asked her friends how she could have it made. Their reaction was to call in designers, production people — even patent attorneys. They organized a company, filed for a dozen or so patents and began manufacturing.

It was only in recent weeks that the first salesman showed the first sample of this specially designed protection for the younger set. He was swamped with orders, proving once more that: "Nothing is so irresistible as an idea whose time has come."

More importantly, it settles the problem of how to protect the baby — as well as yourself — once you're driving.

Archaeology Proves Book of Mormon

The Book of Mormon is a history of the ancient inhabitants of this, the American, continent previous to, during and after Christ's life here on earth.

It is a record of three distinct migrations of Israelites from Palestine to the Americas. It tells of a numerous people living in great cities, of highways and houses built of cement, of steel tools, of horses, and of elephants.

These claims have been refuted as erroneous by many, but with the passing of time and by the finding of archaeologists every such Book of Mormon statement has proved to be fact.

This is the subject of the third and final session of the Trial of the "Stick of Joseph," more commonly known as the Book of Mormon.

Jack H. West defended the book under actual courtroom proceedings while in law school, and he will re-enact the closing part of that trial May 10.

Slides will be shown of findings unearthed by archaeologists who are doing extensive work in the above mentioned areas.

The public is invited, free of charge, at 7:30 p. m. on May 10 to the San Francisco Stake House, Hillside and Brunswick street, Daly City.

Washington School News

Dear Sirs:
Every week I read your paper and almost every week there's something about Westlake School, Thomas Ed- ison and Abraham Lincoln. I am mad, because I go to George Washington School and many trips and programs are there. Since last time when I sent you the news about the play "The Brownie Who Found Christmas" the teachers have wanted me to tell you about what has and will be happening. So I guess I'm your reporter from George Washington School.

Here is the news:
There was a talent show directed by Susan Graves and Ceva Bauer (that's me). There were 14 contestants and three winners.

First — Steven Kirby and Alfred Timberez — imitation of Jose E. Mania. Geraldine White and Colleen Smith — piano duet "Heart and Soul." On Thursday, May 2, George Washington had its spring concert. The band, directed by Mr. Snyder played a few selections. Also the glee club, directed by Mrs. Patricia Hackett, sang a group of songs ranging from the Erie Canal to Grand Old Flag. I'm in both band and glee club.

Also there's some news about the district. The Jefferson Elementary School District honor glee club went to the singing festival April 20 and won superior. (So did the band.) On May 8, the honor glee club will sing for an audience at Benjamin Franklin School.

Your reporter from George Washington High School.
CEVA CYNTHIA BAUER.

San Mateo County Receives $10,800
From State Fees

San Mateo County has received $10,811 as its semi-annual share of the distribution of state-collected trailer coach fees, State Controller Alan Cranston reported this week.

Total distribution for the state was $940,820. Total collections had been $1,065,820, and $222,499 was deducted for administrative costs in the program.

The distribution represented the counties' share of fees collected from July 1, 1962, to Dec. 31, 1962. Fees collected during the first half of 1963 will be distributed about September 1.

Longfellow PTA Summer School
The Longfellow PTA will hold its next regular meeting on Thursday, May 9, at 12:45 p. m. in the school auditorium. "Focusing on Safety in School and in the Home" is the theme for this month and for the program the San Francisco fire department will present a film.

Refreshments will be served immediately following the meeting.

TOP SPOTS FOR DINING AND DANCING

For a Homeward-Bound Aperitif, or an Evening Out . . . the Westlake Lounge Is the Ideal Spot

The Westlake Cocktail Lounge, located at 307 South Mayfair avenue in the Westlake Shopping Center, is the lounge where people for many years have come to relax over a drink and quietly converse with friends.

Frank Davidson and Frank McCann, owners and hosts, have been greeting the patrons of the lounge for the past ten years, and have established the fact of being one of the best lounges in the area.

Every Friday and Saturday night, one can hear the distinct stylings of organist Melba Manzo at the piano-bar.

Known to all as Melba, she has been with the Westlake Lounge for the past two years, giving out with her distinct and beautiful musical stylings. Westlake Cocktail Lounge — For after shopping, or for always open from 10 a. m. to an evening out, drop in at the 2 a. m.
